

Strategic Advice

Providing formal and informal strategic advice.

We empower individuals and organisations with formal or informal foresight-driven strategic advice.

Our consultants, honorary principal scientists and senior research fellows have 20+ years of hands-on experience working for research and technology organisations (RTOs) in Europe as well as leading universities and international organisations around the world.

Our team is regularly asked to participate as active members of Advisory Boards in projects and institutions in the private and public sectors.